- B. Minor website design and organization changes may be made with the approval of the Web Committee.
- C. Any website changes impacting the purpose, functionality, or internet hosting arrangement shall require Steering Committee approval.

Article III – Membership and Duties

Section 1. Membership in Intergroup shall be open to all AA groups in Lancaster County. The Intergroup meeting consists of Representatives of the member groups. An alternate Representative chosen by each member group may serve in the absence of the appointed Representative. A minimum of one (1) year sobriety for both the Representative and alternate is recommended.

Section 2. Intergroup Representatives shall elect a Steering Committee (SC) consisting of seven (7) members of Alcoholics Anonymous. The purpose and duties of the SC are described in Article V.

Section 3. Representatives or members shall offer suggestions for consideration and action. Each Representative shall vote on issues brought before the Intergroup body. Representatives are expected to keep their respective groups informed of the proceedings.

Section 4. Intergroup Representatives may overrule any action of the SC by:

- A. Obtaining substantial unanimity to overrule the action at a regular meeting; or
- B. Informing their member groups of the situation and obtaining their feedback; and then voting for a second time to overrule the action at the next Intergroup meeting.

Article IV – Intergroup Meetings

Section 1. Regular meetings of Intergroup and any interested AA members shall be conducted monthly. The time and place of this meeting shall be determined by the Chairperson.

Section 2. Either the Chairperson or any three (3) members may call for a special meeting. Notice of the meeting shall be provided at least one (1) week prior; the acceptable methods include notification in person, electronically, or by mail.

Section 3. The number of Intergroup representatives present at a meeting shall constitute a quorum to conduct business.

Section 4. An action by the members may be taken without a meeting if all responding members indicate written/electronic consent.

Section 5. Robert's Rules of Order (as modified by AA) shall govern the conduct of meetings.

Section 6. The order of business at regular Intergroup meetings is attached to the end of this document.

Article V – Steering Committee (SC)

Section 1. The SC serves as the administrative arm of Intergroup, to which it is directly responsible. All actions, except as otherwise provided herein, shall be subject to the approval of the Representatives at their regular or special meetings.

Section 2. The SC shall consist of four (4) Officers (Chairperson, Vice Chairperson, Treasurer and Secretary), Office Coordinator, and two (2) Members-at-Large elected by Intergroup for a term of two (2) years.

- A. Elections shall be held in November, with no more than three (3) members being elected in one year. Terms begin in December.
- B. SC members shall not serve concurrently as a group/meeting Intergroup representative or as an AA district officer.
- C. SC members shall not vote or propose motions during the Intergroup meeting.
- D. SC members shall have two (2) years of continuous sobriety and have served previously in an AA trusted servant position.

Section 3. The four (4) Officers shall be elected by the SC, and approved by substantial unanimity of the Intergroup Representatives present at the next regular Intergroup meeting.

Section 4. If a vacancy arises in the middle of a term, the Intergroup may elect an AA member recommended by the SC to complete the term. A person filling a mid-term vacancy shall be permitted, if elected, to serve an additional term of two (2) years.

Article VI – SC Duties and Responsibilities

Section 1. Officers

- A. The SC Chairperson shall preside over all SC and Intergroup meetings, performing the duties customary to the office, such as assigning members of the SC special duties as necessary.
- B. The Vice Chairperson acts on behalf of the Chair when absent.
- C. The Secretary records the minutes of the Intergroup meetings, forwards minutes to the Web Committee for posting, and maintains a record of members' group affiliations, email addresses, and phone numbers.
- D. The Treasurer is responsible for all financial matters, including deposits, payment of bills, preparation of monthly financial reports, and submission of required tax forms.

A proposed budget shall be submitted at the October meeting to allow groups the opportunity to review. The proposed budget shall also be posted on the Intergroup page of the website. A vote on the budget shall be conducted at the November meeting.

- E. In the absence of both the Chairperson and Vice Chairperson, the Treasurer shall assume the duties of the Chairperson.

Section 2. Office Coordinator and Members-at-Large

- A. The Office Coordinator ensures that volunteers are familiar with office operation. Procedures include handling calls, distributing mail; maintaining the literature and audiovisual inventories; securing checks/money; displaying AA activities; arranging for the repair of equipment; updating the meeting schedule; and notifying the answering service and the Web Committee of any changes.
- B. Members-at-Large (2) perform special duties as assigned.

Section 3. Authorization to Sign

The Chairperson or Treasurer may sign lease agreements, contracts, or other instruments that the SC and Intergroup have authorized, except when Intergroup or applicable law otherwise requires.

Section 4. Meetings

- A. Regular meetings of the SC shall be held at the time and place to be determined by the Chairperson.
- B. Special meetings of the SC may be called by the Chairperson or at the request of or any three (3) members. The person or persons authorized to call a special meeting may determine the time and place.
- C. A majority of the SC present shall constitute a quorum at a regular or special SC meeting.
- D. Action may be taken by the members without a meeting if a majority provide written/electronic consent.

Section 5. Reimbursement for Extraordinary Expenses

SC members and Committee Chairs may be involved in activities related to their function. A Request for Approval of Reimbursement may be submitted.

Requests from Committee Chairs will be considered by the SC. Those from SC members will be considered by Intergroup members.

Section 6. Presumption of Agreement

A member present at a meeting at which action is taken on a SC matter shall be presumed to have agreed to the decision reached. If the member does not agree, their dissent may be expressed and entered into the minutes of the meeting or a written dissent may be filed with the Secretary of the SC within two (2) days after the meeting adjourns.

Section 7. Vacancies

Candidates to fill SC vacancies shall be nominated by the SC and elected by a majority of the Representatives present at the next Intergroup meeting.

Section 8. Removal, Resignations and Replacements

- A. Any member of the SC may be removed by a majority vote of the Representatives present and voting at any regular or special meeting of the Intergroup Representatives.
- B. If any officer or SC member begins drinking, that person shall be deemed to have resigned the position, or said member resigns voluntarily. Nominations will be taken at the next monthly Intergroup meeting.
- C. The Vice Chairperson automatically becomes the acting Chairperson if the Chairperson resigns. The Treasurer becomes the Chairperson if both the Chairperson and Vice Chairperson resign or are unable to fulfill the Chairperson position.
- D. Any elected Officer or SC member who misses three (3) consecutive monthly Intergroup or SC meetings or any combination thereof shall be deemed to have resigned.

Article VII – Finances

Section 1. Intergroup shall be entirely self-supporting in accordance with AA's Seventh Tradition. This shall be achieved by voluntary contributions of member groups/ meetings, individual member contributions, ongoing activities of Intergroup committees, as well as the sale of AA Conference-approved literature and other items approved by the Steering Committee.

Section 2. A reasonable prudent reserve shall be established to ensure six (6) months of operating expenses, but not to exceed twelve (12) months. A review will be completed at the end of each quarter by the Treasurer. In the event insufficient funds are available to meet this amount, the SC shall make every reasonable effort to cut expenses.

Section 3. Intergroup may provide funds (seed money) for special events that benefit all AA members. The total amount of funds must be returned to Intergroup if the event generates excess revenue. If the money isn't returned, future support of the event will be terminated.

Article VIII - Amendments to Bylaws

Section 1. Nothing in these Bylaws shall be altered, suspended, repealed or replaced, except by vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the Intergroup representatives present.

Section 2. The proposed changes shall be announced at a regular meeting of Intergroup with such discussion as those present desire. The proposed Bylaw changes shall be posted on the Intergroup page of the website. The proposed changes shall then be voted on no sooner than the next Intergroup meeting.
